

Are you early in your pregnancy?

This research project on prenatal screening may be of interest to you!

This large cross-Canada project aims to study the differences between NIPT and the standard prenatal screening for Down syndrome offered to all pregnant women.

NIPT – Non-invasive prenatal testing

To participate you must be:

- 19 years or older
- Wanting prenatal screening for Down syndrome
- Less than 14 weeks pregnant
- Pregnant with only 1 baby
- Not intending to pursue self-pay NIPT
